EAST FLORIDA CLAIMS.

Representative Otey, of the Sixth Disminh Article of the treaty of 1819 between his United States and Spain. This is a self which contemplates settlement of it the unsettled claims of the Spanish hisbitants of East Florida, which cose during the years 1812-1815, and are generally known as the East Florida Claims. In 1822 President Monroe called attention to the necessity of settling these claims. The Judiciary Committee of the House in the Chrity-third Congress reported unanimously in favor of the settlement in 1855 in 1859 the House Committee on Claims nade a similar report; and in 1860 the senate committee did likewise.

These claims had their origin in the novasion of East Florida in 1812, when hat country was a province of Spain, which invasion was in violation of the away of nations. In ceding Florida in

MR. ELLINGTON'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mr. F. P. Ellington took place from Central Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock. The service was largely attended by sympathizing friends. The pastor, Rev. W. W. Lear, conducted the service, and was assisted by Rev. T. P. Wise. Both ministers spoke in culogistic terms of Mr. Ellington's life, and upbeld his stainless character as a worthy example. The fact that Mr. Ellington passed away without showing the slightest sign of fear was touched upon in a most able manner by Rev. Wise. The solo rendered so beautifully by Mr. Watson brought tears to almost every eye in the church.
